

Department for Digital, Culture,
Media & Sport

The Civil Society Strategy: Building a future that works for everyone

Somerset VCSE Strategic Forum
10 October 2018

Why a Civil Society Strategy?

853,000

Employees in the voluntary sector

2,7m

Employees in social enterprises

c. 50m people aged 16+

volunteer at least once a year

ONS values this at £22.6bn

The average amount given to charity in a month is £22

£9.7bn

was given in 2016

Five foundations of social value

THE CIVIL SOCIETY STRATEGY

PEOPLE

ENABLING A LIFETIME OF CONTRIBUTION

PEOPLE IN CHARGE

A CONNECTED, RESOURCEFUL SOCIETY

OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

THE SOCIAL SECTOR

SUPPORTING CHARITIES & SOCIAL ENTERPRISES

A SECTOR CONFIDENT WITH DIGITAL

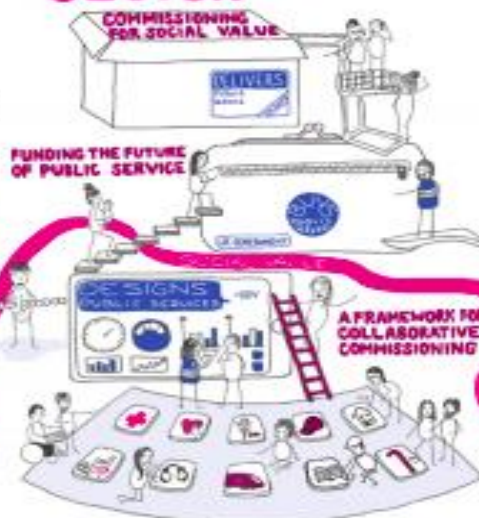

LEADERSHIP, SUPPORT REGULATION

FUNDING & FINANCING THE SECTOR

THE VOICE OF CIVIL SOCIETY

THE PUBLIC SECTOR

ENSURING COLLABORATIVE COMMISSIONING

COMMISSIONING FOR SOCIAL VALUE

FUNDING THE FUTURE OF PUBLIC SERVICE

DESIGNS

A FRAMEWORK FOR COLLABORATIVE COMMISSIONING

PLACE

EMPOWERMENT & INVESTMENT IN LOCAL COMMUNITIES

INCLUSION

EMPOWERMENT

INVESTMENT

THE PRIVATE SECTOR

PROMOTING BUSINESS, FINANCE & TECH FOR GOOD

RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS

TECH FOR GOOD

FINANCE FOR GOOD

@CIS18

#CivilSocietyStrategy

Thank you

Department for Digital, Culture,
Media & Sport

Any questions?

patrick.mckenna@culture.gov.uk